

National Association of Women Lawyers Second Annual YouTube Video Contest

CONTEST RELEASE AND ENTRY FORM

By entering this contest you are giving the National Association of Women Lawyers ("NAWL") your permission to duplicate and distribute the content of your video on its YouTube Channel, throughout the world, and at its Mid-Year Meeting. As a condition of entry into NAWL's YouTube Contest and for no monetary compensation, you grant NAWL the nonexclusive worldwide rights to reproduce and distribute any material submitted in connection with your entry, in whole or in part, in any media. You also grant NAWL the right to use your organization's name in connection with the submitted video. You warrant that your submitted video and its contents are original with you, that their publication will not infringe on the rights of others, and that you have full power to grant this license. Should any part of the content of your video require permission for use by NAWL, you warrant that you have obtained that permission from the copyright owner consistent with this agreement. In the event that NAWL is subject to a claim or legal action based on an assertion that an individual or content is featured in your contest submission without the proper permissions, you agree to indemnify NAWL against all costs associated with responding to the claim, including but not limited to costs, attorneys' fees, penalties, settlements, and judgments.

I hereby consent to the above release.

Signed: _____

Group name: _____

Any group not made up of over 50% women is not eligible for the competition. Check the box to certify that the submitting organization is made up of greater than 50% women

Contact name: _____

Contact email: _____

Contact telephone number: _____

Video title: _____

Video description (75 words or less): _____

Videos must be submitted via Dropbox to nawl@nawl.org. The contest entry form and release may be sent directly to nawl@nawl.org. For more information, please contact Kelsey Vuillemot, NAWL's Member Services & Program Manager, at kvuillemot@nawl.org.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS IS DECEMBER 31, 2017